WHEN ALL THAT'S LEFT IS LOVE

by Rabbi Allen S. Maller

When I die
If you need to weep
Cry for someone
Walking the street beside you.
You can love me most by letting Hands touch hands, and Souls touch souls.
You can love me most by Sharing your Simchas (goodness) and Multiplying your Mitzvot (acts of kindness).
You can love me most by
Letting me live in your eyes
And not on your mind.
And when you say
Kaddish for me
Remember what our Torah teaches,
Love doesn't die
People do.
So when all that's left of me is love
Give me away.

We proudly commit to enhancing the remarkable meaning, purpose and substance of Jewish identity and the infusion of Jewish life in our broader society. We fearlessly address challenging current issues and fervently provide opportunities for attaining knowledge, celebrating Jewish culture, engaging with the people and State of Israel and offering service to our community locally and around the world.
