What are you building?

We are making transformative upgrades to our building, and we appreciate your patience and support while this work is underway! The results of this work will make 92NY more welcoming, sustaining and accessible for everyone.

Many areas of 92NY are being renovated. Some of the biggest changes include:

- A stunning new lobby – with a spacious, double-height entrance that will seamlessly connect our buildings with modern architecture and top-notch security.
- In the North building, a grand staircase will lead to beautifully upgraded multipurpose spaces in the Lower Lobby.
- A fully modernized Art Center with state-of-the-art studios for Jewelry, Ceramics and Fine Arts programs
- And there are many more amazing changes to come!

How is this being paid for?

This work is being made possible by the generous supporters of our Campaign for the Next 150, our 150th anniversary capital campaign. To find out more about the campaign and how you can contribute, contact our Development department at 212.415.5755.

Who is your architect?

The internationally acclaimed architecture firm Beyer Blinder Belle designed all our renovations.

Will the work be noisy?

We are working to minimize noise but spaces adjacent to the construction may hear activity between 8 AM and 4 PM.

Where is the Box Office?

During events, our Mobile Box Office is located in the Hall of Mirrors which is accessible at the 92nd Street entrance.

Where is the Coat Check?

The location has not changed. Coat Check is at the far end of the Hall of Mirrors, accessible through the 92d Street entrance.

Where is the bar?

At some events where a bar is available it is located in the event area.

Where is the bathroom?

Bathrooms will be accessible as usual.
